Event Report: Faculty Development Programme on “Importance of IPR in Academic Research”

Date: 26th July 2025

Time: 11:00 AM onwards

Venue: INMANTEC Institutions, Seminar Hall

Organized by: INMANTEC Institutions in collaboration with Institution’s Innovation Council (Ministry of HRD Initiative)

INMANTEC Institutions successfully organized a one-day Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on the theme “Importance of IPR in Academic Research” on 26th July 2025. This initiative was part of INMANTEC Ignite under the aegis of the Institution’s Innovation Council, aiming to build awareness about Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and their increasing relevance in academic research.

The keynote session was led by the esteemed Mrs. Pooja Kumar, IP Expert & Mentor, and Founder & Director of Innove Intellects LLP. With her deep expertise, she shed light on the significance of protecting intellectual creations, patent filing procedures, and the ethical dimensions of academic innovation.

The programme addressed:

- Overview of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)
- Relevance of IPR in higher education and research
- Patent filing process in India
- Copyrights, trademarks, and their academic implications
- Real-world case studies and best practices

Dignitaries Present:

The event was graced by senior leadership including:

- Dr. Nitin Saxena, Professor & Dean Academics
- Dr. Deepak Saxena, Registrar, INMANTEC Institutions
- Faculty members from INMANTEC and various other reputed colleges

Participation:

Faculty members and research scholars from institutions such as I.T.S, Delhi Institute of Advanced Studies, and other reputed colleges registered for the FDP. Participants actively engaged in the sessions and gained practical insights on leveraging IPR for academic and professional growth.
